The views are amazing and the lifestyle is luxurious at one of the highest points on the East Coast. This peaceful and private setting provides views of the river, ocean, and the beauty of nature during every season. The home has over 6000 sf of living space on 3 levels, and a long list of luxurious and convenient amenities. There are many artistic touches and architectural details created by the owners to enhance the perfect spot for many years of family memories. The open floorplan is an entertainers dream, and it provides many possibilities for guests or inter-generational living. An opulent, yet practical chef's kitchen is the centerpiece, leading to a spacious covered rear porch, overlooking a private yard with pool, outdoor kitchen and mature landscaping. Square footage includes finished, walk out basement.
